Capt. Joseph Leach, a veteran soldier of the Revolution (also a sea captain), was a high-spirited, valued citizen, and a strong Jeffersonian republican. He was several years representative and selectman. His death (1815-16) was occasioned by the running away of his team in the hay season. While springing from his cart to stop his cattle, he was caught and crushed between the wheel and a bar post. His widow died June 20, 1849, aged one hundred and two years. His sons were Joseph, Samuel, John and Andrew. He had also several daughters.

Benjamin Perley, Jr., resided in the south-eastern part of the town. His sons, Warren and Humphrey C., within a few years deceased, each served the town several years as selectmen and representatives.

Children of Benjamin and Lois Perley: Lois, b. January 18, 1792; Patty Gould, b. June 28, 1793; Benjamin, b. February 15, 1795; Hannah, b. October 12, 1796; Humphrey C., b. March 31, 1798; Warren, b. September 3, 1799; Gilman, b. August 27, 1801; Eliza, b. December 22, 1802; Anna, b. November 26, 1804; John, b. July —, 1808; Elbridge, b. October 29, 1810.

When he was very old the house of Mr. Benjamin Perley, senior, caught fire. He went to the attic to extinguish it, and being unable to get out, perished in the flames. His great-grandson, Jeremiah, son of Warren Perley, was slain, after a brave defence, by a party of Indians in California.

Eliphalet R. Sargent, from Goffstown, who has resided in this town about twenty-five years, is an intelligent, industrious husbandman. He has held town offices of responsibility, and owns the farm first occupied by Capt. William Parker.

Joshua F. Hoyt was a hard-working, thrifty farmer, and an extensive dealer in cattle. He was chosen selectman and treasurer several times. He was also an agent

To those who are not already perfectly familiar with the place, we would say that it is but ten blocks from the postoffice and is easily accessible to the business part of the city by means of the electric street railway, which runs through the addition.

With the tremendous strides the city is making towards becoming the first city of Iowa, for many people recognize the importance of locating their residences a little further out than has been done heretofore, as is clearly shown by the numerous palatial dwellings which were built in that immediate neighborhood last year.

With this addition fixed up in the same order of elegance as Van Devonter place, which it certainly will be, as Walsh Bros. told the reporter it would be, the Kid looks to see those fifty-six lots picked up in a hurry.

Verily, Clinton is in the push this spring.

WILLIAM CHANDLER DEAD.

He Passed Away at Eight O'clock Saturday Morning.

William Chandler, Sr., departed this life at his home, 126 Second avenue, at 8 o'clock Saturday morning, aged fifty-two years and eight months.

William Chandler was born in Peru, New York, on June 27, 1841, and came to Clinton county with his parents over forty years ago, settling near Camanche, where his aged mother yet resides. Thirty years ago he was married to Miss Roxana Rowell, of Camanche, and in 1871 they came to this city where they have since resided.

Several years ago in December last Mr. Chandler suffered a stroke of paralysis, from which he never fully recovered, the peculiar disease gradually working upon his system until the vital spark of life was extinguished.

Of the immediate family a devoted wife and two sons—Lester and William—are left to mourn.

The funeral will be held from the residence, 126 Second avenue, at 10 o'clock Monday morning, followed by interment in the cemetery at Camanche.

From Friday's Daily.

James McElhaney was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary by Judge Wolfe this morning, for assault upon Officer James Cole with intent to commit murder. John McHale, implicated in the same case, found guilty by the jury of assault to do great bodily injury, was sentenced to four months in the county jail.

It will remembered that on the night of Saturday, June 23, at midnight, or shortly after, Officer James N. Cole went into Andras Andresen's saloon, at Camanche aveuue and Harrison street, to quiet a disturbance in that place. He was set upon by James and John McHale, James McElhaney and William Ryner, and a desperate fight ensued in which Cole was so terribly bruised and beaten

The Ringwood Columbian Class held another interesting session last Friday evening with a full attendance, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Warfield. The first part of the program was given to the discussion of the Light House, Coast Survey and Life Saving Service, following which was the lesson of the evening, on the history and manufacture of silks, carpets, tapestries and gloves, also an account of our great fur trade. The desire to complete the course before the opening of the World's Fair in May has necessitated a wide range of subjects at each evening's lesson, but the members feel that they have been led to pleasant heights from which their views of the world in its past and present condition, its developments, governments and industries, have been greatly extended and that the course is proving a fine preparatory for future careful study.

CLINTON BICYCLERS.

MAKING PREPARATIONS FOR THE SEASON.

Organization of the Y. M. C. A. Club—Their Meeting Saturday Night—By-laws adopted—The Association's Position on the Sunday Riding Subject.

The wheelmen of Clinton have begun active preparations for the bicycling season of 1893, and already country runs, relay races, five mile dashes, prize contests and fancy riding exhibits are being talked of. The two fine days of last week had the effect of stimulating a number of the boys who have been patiently waiting for the ice and snow to go off and from winter quarters, in the attic, many a wheel was brought out, rubbed up and put in roadiness for active work.

The snow of Saturday night put a damper on the hopes of some of the enthusiasts who had been rubbing on "elbow grease" in preparation for an inspection of our ten miles of brick paved streets yesterday, but they are all enthusiastic over the coming season's work and have only a contemptuous sneer for the fellow who says that the bicycle craze is dying out. It can safely be said that more wheels will be seen on our splendid brick paved streets this coming season than ever before. Several of the boys who rode second hand machines last season have decided to invest their winter's earnings in a new pneumatic tired safety, and a number of new converts who

Saturday night Mr. and Mrs. Edlef Boysen were given a benefit entertainment at German hall, by their friends, the occasion being the fiftieth anniversary of the aged couple's wedding day. It was thought that this would be a fitting occasion on which to give Mr. and Mrs. Boysen a benefit, says the Bugle, and the proceeds of the dance netted a nice amount. ward to w[illegible] delight by those who like to see the giants in the council wrestle Græco-Roman rules.

It is expected, also, that there will be the usual number of petitions to abate taxes. This has been declared to be illegal, again and again, in the council, but still it is an established rule of order, apparently, by sufferage, and as the council has been doing it so long it would take an alderman with considerable nerve to oppose the requests, legal or illegal.

Funerals.

Anyone who knows the genial Peter, knows his market will be a perfect one—neat, attractive—his meats perfect, and the attendance gentlemanly.

THE RAILWAYS.

Agent Ramsay, of Amber, was in the city Wednesday.

Chief Train Dispatcher Ed. Smith is away down in Texas having a jolly time, shooting, fishing and swapping yarns with the rangers. Ed is a good prohibitionist when at home, but of course when away is not expected to be quite as good. And here is how. He was out shooting when a big six footer with broad sombrero came up to him and said: "Here, kid, you vamoose." Ed didn't know exactly what it meant but he thought the fire in the eyes meant he could not shoot on that ranch and he had better get off. He meekly asked how far it was off of this Texan's farm when the man said: "Seven miles and you puckachee d—— quick." Ed is a diplomat. He had no desire to run seven miles with 45 calibre bullets chasing him, so he says: "Mister, I've got some fine Milwaukee beer over in my way car, don't you want to couple on to it. I'll give you a clearance ticket. That struck the Texas ranchman and now Smith hunts every day on that ranch undisturbed, while the employes of the ranch herd game toward him. Funny, now a little beer can save a life, isn't it?

Pleasures.

One of the prettiest parties given in his section was at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. A. Smith, of Morrison, Friday night—a fancy dress party, many of the costumes being extremely pretty. Hoffman's harp orchestra played.

been one of the most successful agricultural associations in the state. Its affairs have been managed with excellent skill and business tact. Very much of its success is due to the personal interest taken by Mr. Staggs and in the management which he was responsible for. He has always taken great interest in school matters, in town improvements, never failing to secure the respect of his neighbors and the community in which he resides. He is thoroughly acquainted with the interests of the county, and as supervisor he would take the same pride in seeing that they were successfully and economically taken care of, as he has been in regard to the agricultural association. Probably a better selection of supervisor could not have been made. A man of the strictest integrity, honorable and upright in his dealings with his fellow man, he is just that kind of a person the democratic party delights in making a county supervisor of.

So every one sees it is a grand, good ticket. It has not a weak link in it. Every name is strong. Every name has borne the test of time. If there are any democrats not satisfied with it they would not be satisfied if the ticket was made up of angels. But we believe every democrat in the county will vote for it. That done Clinton county on the 6th of November will give one of its old time democratic majorities.

Ross Wilson Not Seeking Klan Support

Current political rumors that Ross Wilson, candidate for County Coroner had been handicapped in receiving the endorsement of the Woodland Realm of the Ku Klux Klan, led to an unsolicited statement by Wilson today in which he characterizes any effort "to associate his name by endorsement or otherwise with any faction, fraternity or religious sect" as "unfair, unwarranted, unsolicited."

Wilson's statement is reproduced as follows:

To All Yolo County Voters:

In fairness to my friends and constituency in Yolo County, I seek the columns of the press to put at rest unfair and unfounded rumors to the effect that I am affiliated with or endorsed by sectarian or other organizations or fraternities alleged to exist in this city and county. If I have received any indorsement, it is without my knowledge or solicitation. It is unfortunate that candidates cannot control such situations. We all seek the support and endorsement of our friends in close, clean campaigns such as those now presented to the electorate of Yolo county where we count our friends and supporters among all walks of life and religious and business activity.

My purpose is to assure my friends that I am free of any alliances, cater to no sect, organization or combination of people, and only seek office upon my merit and ability to perform its varied functions.

It has been the good fortune of the undersigned to enjoy the friendship and business confidence of men and women of every church and every avenue of business, and to associate his name by endorsement or otherwise with any faction, fraternity or religious sect, is unfair, unwarranted, unsolicited and does an injustice not merited.

My aim and promise is to meet all requirements of the important office of coroner fairly, efficiently, and justly, following up the policies of the office in past years and while I have been in charge of the work as deputy coroner.

ROSS C. WILSON,
Deputy Coroner, Yolo County.

W. HUGHS DIES SUDDENLY IN OAKLAND

William Hughs, for many years engaged in the stationery and paper business in Woodland, but more recently a department head at The Vogue, passed away unexpectedly in Oakland early today. Death was due to a facial cancer.

Although Mr. Hughs had not been in the best of health for some time, he had not discovered the nature of his affliction until two weeks ago. He left here only yesterday morning to consult specialists. His condition had not been deemed critical.

The funeral arrangements will be completed this evening. Kitto and Wilson received word that the remains would arrive on the 8:20 Southern Pacific train.

Surviving the deceased are a wife and one daughter, Miss Ada, who lives in Woodland, and a son, Harold, who is traveling for a Sacramento concern. He also leaves a brother, Henry, who resides at Gridley, and another brother, Elias, whose home is in Illinois.

Mr. Hughs will be mourned most by those who knew him best. He had a kind heart and his sympathies went out to those to whom it most comforted. He was a modest man and never boasted of his own achievements or attempted to minimize the good deeds of others. He was a good citizen, manifesting a deep interest in every movement, public or private, calculated to promote the interests of the people in the community where he lived.

A devoted husband, affectionate father and loyal friend, he will not soon be forgotten and his memory will long be honored.

The men were frightened away when she fired a shotgun in the air, but she was able to see that one of them had on a rough-necked sweater, as he passed under an arc light and boarded a Twenty-first street car.

Hecke Sent East To Seek Fruit Men's Priority Rights

Hoping to obtain priority rights from the Interstate Commerce Board, G. H. Hecke of this city, State Director of Agriculture, was ordered by Governor Wm. D. Stephens today to proceed at once to Washington, D. C. The object of the trip is to make an effort to get rights of way for the immediate return of refrigerator cars to California.

It is declared that with deciduous fruits and grapes coming on in September and October there will be a shortage of shipping cars in this state unless action is taken now.

As a means of accomplishing the aims of the governor to avert a loss to California farming interests, Hecke today wired the heads of all state departments of agriculture asking them to also proceed to Washington for a conference. Governor Stephens is considering the advisability of sending a similar message to the state governors.

Today's orders to Hecke resulted from a meeting held in San Francisco last Wednesday and which was attended by representatives of 75,000 farmers.

Old In Years Only, Lands Three-Prong Buck

G. D. Parish is an elderly gentleman whose advanced years necessitates the use of a cane in order that locomotion may be comfortably accomplished. Yet these handicaps have not succeeded in overcoming the sportsman's spirit that is part of his nature, nor in destroying his ability to go into the hills and successfully "draw a bead" on the wild things of the forest. As proof of his steady hand and true eye, he has to his credit a three-prong buck which he shot at Samuel Springs last Wednesday.

Masons Bury Byron Ball, Local Att'y

Funeral services for Byron Ball, former Woodland attorney, who died in San Francisco Thursday, were held this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Richmond Lodge, No. 375, F. & A. M., conducted the rites.

Ball is survived by a wife, Mary E., and was the father of Chester A., Gerald L. and Elba A. Ball. He was 70 years of age, a native of Toronto, Jefferson county, Ohio.

For many years Ball was active in legal, political and fraternal circles in Woodland. He was once a candidate for district attorney, but was defeated by the late E. Hopkins.

Friends in Woodland held Ball in high esteem.

Suffers Fractured Back When Car Turns Over

Mrs. Sarah Bejar was brought here from Colfax last night, suffering with a broken back. She was hurt in an automobile accident when the driver of the car fell asleep and the machine turned over.

Mrs. Bejar was taken to the Woodland Sanitarium. Although the injury was serious, her condition was pronounced as satisfactory today. She will recover.

Taking Big Yield Almonds Off Capay Farm Of Lawheads

Fred Lawhead, who is in charge of the almond orchards of himself and Dr. H. D. Lawhead, north of Capay, reports that the almond growers in that vicinity were particularly fortunate this season. The frost which pinched the almond buds in most other communities did not touch them at all. They were protected by the topography of the country.

The Lawhead orchards comprise about fifty acres, set to nine-year-old trees. The harvest will begin in about a week and the yield will be the largest ever harvested. The trees did not pay until they were seven years old. They came into bearing at the age of six or seven years, but for the first two or three years the yield was hardly sufficient to pay overhead expense. Good prices are anticipated this season and the almond industry will doubtless be very profitable.

Peach Crops Ripen Two Weeks Late

All indications are that this year's peach crop is about ten days to two weeks late. Elbertas and Muirs are for the most part quite green yet, and apparently only beginning to take on their last ripening swell.

The Rural Press is authority for the statement that the peach crop throughout the state will be about two weeks late.

It is expected that pear shipping from Nevada county will start about the middle of August. The fruit is late in maturing.

Rail Embargo To Delay Mails; Utah Sacks Now Tied Up

Local mail service thus far has not suffered from the rail embargo. Word of a tie up at Ogden today, however, indicates that Eastern mail from now on will be coming in from a half day to three days late.

Bear Raid Camp Of Laugenours At Yellowstone

Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Laugenour and their sons, Forrest and Beverly, have returned from an automobile trip, the objective point of which was Yellowstone Park. Going into the Park they passed over the Nevada desert where they encountered some heavy roads where the going was hot, dusty and disagreeable. They traveled around the great lake on the north shore and down to Salt Lake City via Ogden. During the remainder of the trip the roads were fairly good. Their route lay through parts of Idaho, Montana and Wyoming.

In the Park they saw everything worth while and had a most delightful experience, except one incident which they were not anticipating and which kept their camp in a turmoil for one night. The Park bears are pretty well domesticated and they are night marauders. One of them, in search of something to eat, raided their camp after they had all retired for the night and they nearly lost their lunch basket. There was but little sleep during the remainder of the night.

Coming out on the return trip the Laugenours took the Yellowstone trail to the Columbia river. They describe this as the most wonderful scenic route they ever had the pleasure of travelling over. Every foot of it is paved and it traverses a picturesque country that is a tourist's paradise. They passed through Spokane and Portland and many other growing and beautiful cities and towns. They are advising their friends that it is one of the most wonderful trips in America.

Top Prices Offered For Figs; Yolo Crop Looks Like Bumper

Seventeen cents for extra fancy lots and 11 cents for ordinary grades, is considered a big price for figs, and Yolo fig farmers are much encouraged. Last year's prices ranged from 4 to 6 cents a pound.

The first local crop has nearly all been harvested and sold. Buyers are now offering around 11 cents for the second crop. Figs will ripen here the forepart of September.

The crop is declared to be a bumper, the quality extra fine.

L.W. Scarlett Buys Hoppin Ranch

Sale late yesterday of the Charles H. Hoppin ranch, near Yolo, to L. Wilson Scarlett marked the second important real estate transaction here in three days, E. S. Young having purchased one of the Al M. Bemmerly farms last Wednesday. Scarlett took possession of his new ranch immediately.

The Hoppin farm comprises 160 acres. The sale price was around $40,000, according to the revenue stamps on the papers filed by Attorney E. W. Armfield.

The property is two miles west of the Scarlett ranch, which is being farmed by Wilson Scarlett. The latter intends to make his new place his home ranch.

Alfalfa and grain are the chief crops now being raised on the Hoppin ranch.

Hoppin intends to make his permanent home in Oakland. He is engaged in the insurance business.

Taft Makes Hit, Coolidge Fails, Bailey Reports

"We all fell in love with the geniality of Chief Justice Taft but Vice-President Coolidge was not impressive from either personality or ability," declared A. G. Bailey, the only Yolo attorney to attend the American Bar Association meeting in San Francisco. Bailey returned home last night.

Bailey said that Taft made an excellent impression, his address reflecting ability and clear thought. Coolidge read his speech and it failed to hold the interest of the attorneys for that reason.

The Woodland lawyer said that it was current talk among the bigger men from the Eastern states that President Harding would have to "make good" his ultimatum to the railroads and strikers or suffer an appreciable loss in public strength.

Sanitarium Continues To Expand

Dr. Leo P. Bell, first assistant to one of the famous Mayo brothers of Rochester, Minn., has become a member of the group of surgeons and physicians at the Woodland Sanitarium. In the wake of his coming are heard reports that the already spacious and well-appointed Sanitarium is to be further expanded. Patronage has so increased at the local institution that the men in charge find it difficult to accommodate the number of cases. Many out-of-town patients are selecting the Woodland plant in preference to others in the interior.

Dr. Bell will conduct a general practice and do surgery work. He is a graduate of Harvard University. He was at the Mayo Brothers institution at Rochester for three years as first assistant to W. J. Mayo.

Plans for the new addition to the Sanitarium have not been completed but it is indicated that the new wing will be built on the north side. The necessity for additional quarters is evidence of the response and appreciation shown for the excellent service being provided by the management and those interested in the local health plant.

FARMERS ADVISED TO HOLD UP CROPS

Even the brokers are advising wheat and barley farmers not to sell their crops. Both commodities suffered another slump this week. "The market can't go much lower," said one rancher today, and he expressed the sentiment of farmers and brokers alike.

The funeral was handled by the Krellenberg Company.

The remains were sent to the East Lawn crematorium.

Knights Landing Hunter "Lost"; Pal Fights Fire

A hunting party consisting of William Richter, Norman Scott, William Evans, Raymond Griffith and Guy Shellhammer have returned from the Eel river country. They were successful in bagging two fine bucks, but that was not their most thrilling adventure.

Raymond Griffith got separated from the rest of the party and was lost for nine hours. From the top of a mountain he sighted Eel river, near which their camp was made. He descended to the river bank, thinking it was easy to locate the camp. He actually was only a mile from camp when he reached the river, but he had lost all sense of direction and started south instead of north, as he should have done.

After walking eight miles it dawned upon him that he was going in the wrong direction and he retraced his steps. Fortunately he was provided with a canteen of water. When he arrived in camp he was almost exhausted and the soles of his shoes were worn out.

McGriff was not the only one of the party who had an adventure. A forest fire broke out at the foot of Snow Mountain. E. Crabtree came across Guy Shellhammer and commandeered him to fight fire. As Mr. Crabtree is the forester there there was nothing for Shellhammer to do but obey orders. The local boy fought the fire for 36 hours before it was under control.

YOLO COUPLE SUSPECTED OF MURDER

Another K. L. Child Meets Sudden Death

"CONVULSIONS FROM HEAT" CAUSED THE DEATH EARLY TODAY OF CALIFORNIA QUINN BRADLEY, INFANT SON OF MR. AND MRS. QUINN BRADLEY OF KNIGHTS LANDING AND A COUSIN OF TWO-YEAR-OLD LOIS FISH, WHO WAS DROWNED IN AN IRRIGATION DITCH ONLY LAST MAY 16. MRS. BRADLEY AND MRS. FISH, MOTHERS OF THE TWO DECEASED LITTLE ONES, ARE SISTERS, BEING THE DAUGHTERS OF THE LATE HENRY HACHMANN, FOR MANY YEARS ENGAGED IN THE TAILORING BUSINESS IN WOODLAND.

The Bradley baby boy passed away at 1 o'clock this morning at the Woodland Sanitarium. Everything possible was done to spare its life. The attending physician said that the cause of death was "convulsions from heat." The child had been ill for about four days.

The Bradleys live a short distance out of Knights Landing. As is the case with the Fish family, they are prominent in the river farming community and the entire vicinity is mourning because of their bereavement.

The baby was one year, 10 months and one day old.

The body will be sent to Santa Rosa Thursday for interment. Kitto and Wilson have charge of the details.

Besides Mrs. Ed Fish, another aunt of the little son is Mrs. Geo. Price, who is likewise well known here.

Johnson Friends Leave Early For Front Seats

OUTGOING ELECTRIC TRAINS THIS AFTERNOON WERE CARRYING MORE PASSENGERS THAN USUAL AND THE PROBABLE EXPLANATION IS THAT MANY ENTHUSIASTIC SUPPORTERS OF SENATOR JOHNSON WANT TO GET FRONT SEATS AT THE BIG MEETING TO BE HELD IN SACRAMENTO TONIGHT.

Apprehension as to the railroad strike situation has caused peach growers to hunt up drying trays so that if necessary the freestones may be dried instead of shipped fresh.

SCHOOL HOLIDAYS TO END ON HOLIDAY; LABOR DAY NAMED AS OPENER

"Good morning, teacher" and "howdy-do, class" will be heard in all the Woodland public schools on Monday, September 4. The date selected is "Labor Day," a legal holiday, but the red letter day on the calendar means nothing to the freckled faced kiddies and the prim schoolmams unless it's real "labor." High school and all grammar classes will be started on the holiday. School Trustees J. Reith Jr., J. L. Harlan, R. J. Gibson and F. C. Ewert. named the date at a meeting last night. J. V. Leithold was absent.

Admission Day, September 9, is a legal school holiday, but Labor Day is not classed as such.

Five More Speed Fiends to Enrich County's Treasury

Of the five alleged automobile speeders caught yesterday by Officer Henry Jacobs, two gave their residence as San Francisco, one said that he came from Kentfield, the fourth had come down from Washington and was on his way to San Francisco, and the fifth was a Benician physician.

S. A. Sparrow, the Kentfield man, was making 40 miles an hour and paid a $10 fine. Dr. H. C. White of Benicia and Walter Pyle Jr. of Washington were each moving along at a 42-mile gait, according to the officer. C. E. Schoendudy of San Francisco was hitting 'er up at 43 and O. Jacobsen of San Francisco was traveling around 40, reported Jacobs.

All of the offenders were told to tell their alibis to Justice W. H. Scott.

Resident Here Thirty Years Ago Brought Back For Last Resting Place; Old Friends Pay Tribute

The body of the late Charles Henry Mock, mention of whose death was made in Tuesday's "Democrat," arrived on the 11 o'clock train this morning. It was accompanied by the bereaved widow, Mrs. Emma J. Mock, her daughters, Mrs. Mamie Forse, Mrs. Myrtle C. Lenahan, Mrs. Beatrice Smith, and their husbands, and her sister, Mrs. Lydia Noller, all of San Francisco, and Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Moffet of Stockton.

The body was taken directly to the city cemetery, where the funeral services were conducted by Father Conner. Many beautiful flowers were laid upon the grave upon the conclusion of the services. The Krellenberg Company had charge of the local arrangements.

Many old-time Woodland friends were at the grave-side to pay a tribute of respect to the dead. The Mocks left Woodland thirty years ago after a long residence in this city. Mr. Mock will be remembered as a painter. He bore the reputation of being an upright and good citizen and many pleasant recollections of his exemplary life were recalled by old citizens of Woodland as they stood beside the open casket and looked upon his kindly and well remembered face.

Mother Of C. Greene Dies Here

Mrs. Bertha L. Greene, widow of the late Charles E. Greene Sr., died at the Woodland sanitarium at 6 o'clock this morning. She was stricken about six months ago and from the beginning of her affliction the physicians in attendance have held out no hope for her recovery.

The maiden name of the deceased was Miss Bertha L. Bennett. She was born in Muscatine, Iowa, March 24, 1839, and was 83 years, 4 months and 15 days old.

She came with her parents, Milo and Mary Bennett, to California in 1851 and located in Sacramento. She was married to Chas. E. Greene Sr., in Sacramento in 1855, and they soon afterward took up their residence in Yolo in the home where she lived ever afterward.

Mr. Greene passed away July 10, 1886. He came to California a pioneer in 1849, lured by the call of the gold fields. After a year in which he was prospecting in mines, he engaged in mercantile business in Sacramento. In 1852 he engaged in farming, the home tract comprising 1280 acres south of Woodland and it was to this highly improved and beautiful home that he took his bride in 1855.

To Mr. and Mrs. Greene were born three children. The eldest, Mrs. B. B. Tuttle died six or seven years ago. The second, Mrs. Ella Jackson, resides in Sacramento. Charles E. Greene Jr., the only son, lives on his farm, which adjoins that owned by his mother. Mrs Greene is also survived by three grandchildren, Lucille, Dorothy and Charles Edwin Greene.

Mrs. Greene was a woman of fine character and strong intellectuality. She was a devoted wife, an affectionate mother and a true and loyal friend, and in all the relations of life discharged her duties and obligations conscientiously and faithfully. She will be sincerely mourned by a wide circle of friends.

The date of the funeral will be announced later. Arrangements are being made through the Krellenberg Co.

Once Local School Girl May Become Leading Actress

In the opinion of Marshall Lee, professional vaudevillian and a brother of County School Superintendent Harriett S. Lee, Miss Pauline Lord, the former Woodland girl, is destined to be one of the greatest actresses in America. "Jack" Lee, as the actor is known over the Keith and Orpheum circuits, declares that Miss Lord's popularity with New York theater-goers is increasing rapidly and he expects to see her in the front rank of the premier actresses of the spoken drama.

Lee, who also formerly made his home in Woodland, has been visiting his sisters, the school superintendent, and Mrs. Helen Clark, but left this morning for Los Angeles.

Lee said last night that the Anna Christy show, of which Miss Lord is the star, is so popular in New York and Chicago that it will likely be some time before it reaches into the Western states. Lee also ventured the opinion that much of the undesirable notoriety given Miss Lord through "eternal triangle" cases has been "framed up." He does not believe that the erstwhile Woodland schoolgirl is the home-wrecker that she has been painted to be.

Miss Lord left Woodland when she was 16 years of age and made her debut with one of Nat Goodwin's companies. Her father, a former local hardware man, was a visitor here recently. He is making his home in New York.

Officers Claim Strong Evidence; Rancher Slain; Dogs Mutilate Remains

BULLETIN.

Although Mrs. Mabel Ross Belarde confessed today that she stood by and watched her pack of dogs chew A. Biese to death, the authorities are inclined to discredit her story. Mrs. Belarde said that she and Beise had quarreled.

An effort is being made to fix the responsibility for the brutal murder of A. Biese, 50-year-old Antelope rancher, upon Mabel Ross Belarde and Louis Belarde, well known to the local county police officers and former residents of Washington, Yolo county. The mutilated body of Biese was found on a cot at his ranch yesterday. The Belardes were neighbors of the farmer.

Under-Sheriff Robert Woods recalled today that the Belarde woman was arrested in Yolo county three years ago upon a petty larceny charge. She was released after paying a fine. Her consort, Steve Dacon, served 20 days for the same offense. Later he was sent to state prison for grand larceny and is now out on parole, say the authorities.

That the Belardes are not husband and wife is the belief of the local officers. They lived near the Yolo causeway section before going to Antelope. Mrs. Belarde is a dog fancier.

Sacramento authorities were inclined to believe last night that the arrest of the Belardes might clear up a murder mystery, but Sheriff J. W. Monroe, Deputy Coroner Ross Wilson and Constable Henry Buckingham, the latter of Washington, said today that they could see no connection with the case recalled by the Sacramento detectives.

A year ago this summer an unidentified man was found in Washington lake. The Sacramento officers say that Mrs. Belarde reported the matter to Constable Buckingham, but the latter said this morning that such was not the case and the Belarde woman had never been suspected of that murder.

After finding the body in Washington lake a haystack upon the ranch on which Belarde was employed took fire and was destroyed under mysterious conditions. Information reaching Sheriff Jones yesterday was to the effect that Belarde was the one suspected of firing the hay.

Neither Belarde nor his wife will give Sheriff Jones any information concerning their past.

Yolo officers were giving what assistance they could in solving the murder of Biese, the Antelope rancher.

Clifford Russell, assistant to Ross Wilson, recalled today that he conducted the inquest. The body was found on August 29, 1921, by Ed Anspack, a boy. Russell remembers talking to a woman about it and he believes that she was Mrs. Ross Belarce. There were no marks of violence on the body. The man was about 25 years old.

The finding of a club, which the officers believe was used to kill the man, a trail of blood leading from the boundary line of the Biese place and that occupied by the Belardes and indications proving that the man had been carried 300 feet to his cot after he had been slain, constitute the strongest evidence.

Officers believe anger over the refusal of Biese to give them food may have caused Belarde and his wife to kill the rancher. This theory is borne out by the fact that the Belardes have run a bill for food at the Lewis and Lauppe general store in Antelope, and have refused to pay.

The theory that the man was attacked by dogs in his yard and was carried into his house, was discarded when officers found the blood-stained

MURDER SUSPECT IS DESCENDANT OF BETSY ROSS; DOGS HER PALS

Officers claim that Mrs. Mabel Belarde, the Yolo woman held as a suspect in the A. Biese murder case, is a descendant of Betsy Ross, of United States flag fame. She is a sister of Henry Ross, Sacramento attorney.

Living in a hovel reeking with filth, Mrs. Belarde and her companion shared their three rooms with 18 dogs and more than a dozen chickens.

HUNTER FINED BY EMIL KRAFT'S AUNT, JUSTICE OF PEACE

Paul Terry, rancher from Colusa, was arrested at Cedar Log Cabin on Goat Mountain recently by Deputy Fish and Game Commissioners S. J. Carpenter and Harry Brittan for having killed a doe and spike buck. On August 5 he pleaded guilty before Justice of the Peace Mrs. Edith McGahan at Stonyford, and was fined $150 for the doe, and $100 for the spike buck.

Mrs. McGahan is an aunt of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Kraft of this city.

COLUSA TO VOTE ON SCHOOL BUILDING

Citizens in the Colusa county high school district will go to the polls on September 12 to decide on the issuance of $200,000 bonds for the construction of a new high school.

Plans and specifications for the proposed structure have already been drawn by W. H. Weeks, San Francisco architect and have met with much favorable comment.

Three carloads of barley were shipped to Portland and Port Costa today. Grain movements have been rather slow for several days. An average of five carloads of grain a day for ten or twelve days has been arriving from Sutter Basin for storage in Woodland warehouses.

ENT.—Yesterday was Ash Wednes- and began the season of Lent, the h [illegible] of the Ecclesiastical Year. [illegible] is derived from the custom t prevailed in the primitive Church, penitents at this time to express their niliation, by lying in sackcloth and es. The season of Lent, including ssiontide, the fortnight before Easter, nmemorates the fasting, suffering and th of our Lord. It is, probably, like er Christian observances of Jewish gin, corresponding with the prepara- of the Jews for the yearly expiation; ir humiliation being forty days before expiation, and ours is forty days be- e the expiation of the sins of the whole rld, by the death of Christ. The nber forty was very anciently appro- ated to seasons of repentance and hu- ation. This was the number of days, ing which God covered the earth with deluge; the number of years in which children of Israel did penance in the lerness, the number of days Moses ed in the Mount, and Elijah in the lerdess; the Ninevites had this number days allowed for their repentance; our Lord, when he was pleased to in the wilderness, observed the same gth [illegible] time. The Lenten services in [illegible]opal and Roman Catholic rches in different parts of the city, e unusually well attended yesterday all seemed much impressed with the resses which embraced, together, the sermon, the usual pastoral letter taining rules for the observance of solemn fast.

The bank is one of the oldest in this section of the state.

The above tells the details as succinctly as possible. Mr. Grimes was called to Des Moines Wednesday and the plain outlined to him of taking over this bank. The details had progressed so far that all that was necessary to close was to inspect the books and papers of the bank and if satisfactory enter into formal transfer of the property. The examination proved satisfactory and the change of property took place on Friday at the close of business for the day. The Pattee Bros. have been known in the financial affairs of central Iowa for many years, rated as millionaires until recent speculations in land impaired their fortunes.

Grand Jury Probe.

Dean Reynolds went to Oskaloosa Wednesday morning to appear before the grand jury of Mahaska county. The sheriff of that county summoned him last Friday and the best information obtainable is that Reynold's evidence is expected to help clear up the myterious disappearance of hogs from the farms of some land owners in the southwest part of Poweshiek county and in the north part of Mahaska county. Reynolds says he was called last September by Ernest Maloy and Carl Farr of near New Sharon to come and truck seventy-five or eighty hogs from that place to the Stuart farm west of Montezuma. He supposed the hogs belonged to the two Mahaska county men who hired him and does not know now that they belonged to others or were stolen property. The grand jury is trying to determine what become of some stolen hogs, and when they get through maybe Frank Bechly and Isaac Fleener will know the whereabouts of the porkers taken from their premises a short time ago. We hope so.

Hopes For A Reversal

Judge W. R. Lewis was in Des Moines last week to argue the Jenkins vs. White, et al suit before the full bench of the Supreme Court. It will be remembered that the Supreme Court rendered a decision several months ago upholding the verdict of the jury in the Poweshiek county court annulling the will of Mrs. Booknau, who left all her property to Anna Jenkins cutting off the other heirs without a cent. The Supreme Court in their decision intimated that the case was one which might be determined either way, and acting upon this suggestion Mr. Lewis filed a motion for a rehearing. He hopes to obtain a reversal of the first decision of the Supreme Court in this case. The property involved amounts to $150,000.

Charles Sanders.

Charles Jacob Sanders, life time resident of Grinnell, died Wednesday at a Des Moines hospital, where he had been taking treatments, at the age of 68 years. One son, Frank, resides near Montezuma. Funeral services were held from the Christian Church, Saturday and burial made in the I. O. O. F. cemetery in Montezuma.

county organization which will be co-operative in its nature while at the same time leaving each post independent. The county organization will be better able to get things done and in a much easier way than for each post to act independently of the other. An important feature of the evening will be a supper served by the Montezuma Legion in the G. A. R. hall. This ought to be a temptation sufficient to bring a large attendance.

DIED FROM EXPOSURE

OLD SETTLER IN POWESHIEK WANDERS OUT INTO COLD

Monday night sometime Edmund C. Wilson, over 80 years of age who has made his home with his son John E. Wilson in the southeast part of Montezuma got up from his bed and wandered out into the cold. He was found Tuesday morning early, dead from exposure or from paralysis. He had been ill for a long time and was in rather a feeble condition. Great care was taken to see that his every want was attended to but he managed to evade the vigilence of the household and got out into the cold which caused his death.

Mrs. Wilson heard him coughing some time in the night and called to him. He appeared alright and perfectly content, so she went to sleep again. None of the household were aware of his going and the presumption is that he became confused when he went out and could not find the way back into the home.

He had worried about a hog pen to be built and had talked much about the work. He was found across the road from the house in the hog lot, so it would seem that he thought daylight was near and had gone out to see about the construction work.

The deceased was born in New York and came to Poweshiek county in the early days of the settlement here. Mrs. Wilson died years ago.

Rev. Fay of New Sharon, former pastor here, will conduct the funeral services at the Christian church this (Thursday) afternoon at 2:00 o'clock.

MR 12-21-1922

Attorney Dies Suddenly.

S. V. Reynolds died suddenly last Thursday in Oskaloosa at his law office from an attack of heart disease. A few days ago he had premonition of the impending summons and told friends he had a short time to live. Prior to Mr. Reynolds' residence there he lived at New Sharon where he served as mayor for two terms. He was elected mayor of Oskaloosa shortly after he had made that city his home and during his administration erected municipal building, beautified city parks and fostered many public improvements. He had always been active in state democratic party affairs and was recognized as one of the political leaders of Iowa. He was 55 years old and is survived by his wife, son and daughter. The deceased was well known in Montezuma and Poweshiek county.

AUTO PLATE SALE LAGS.

New Yellow Numbers Seem to Have Baneful Effect on Owners.

The treasurer's office is a fairly busy place these days dealing out the number plates to those who come to buy the 1923 models, but it must be a more busy place from now until the first of the year or about half the auto owners in Poweshiek county will be delinquent.

The new number plates are responsible in some measure for the slow demand. The yellow does not strike the average man as an elevating influence. And then the double ciphers preceding the numbers up to the thousand mark seems to be a deterrent. Many auto owners come to the office and inquire if the thousand mark has been reached and upon being informed that the last number is less than the ten hundred mark, they refuse to buy plates and go out with a dissatisfied air.

There are about 4500 motor vehicles to be registered in Poweshiek county and the treasurer reports that less than a thousand have been taken care of up to the present time because the demand is too slow. Treasurer Johnston hopes for better results the next two weeks.

Took Bichloride of Mercury.

Mrs. John Jennings of near Tilton took a dose of Bichloride of Mercury last Friday morning with suicidal intent. She had been despondent on account of family difficulties and chose this method of relieving herself of trouble. After taking the poison she informed her daughter of the fact and the husband made all haste to summon a doctor, who labored with all zeal to save her life. Mrs. Jennings

A FEW WORDS ON POLITICAL PATRONAGE

Mr. Andrew Sathe, Clerk of Court, elected practically by the vote in his home district, the south east corner of the county, finds it necessary to take his printing to Milnor in preference to his home town newspapers.

The many business men and farmers of this, his home district, who took it upon their shoulders to elect him to office, are ardent supporters of the Havana Union, their home paper. Through their support, their good will, their boosting ability, the local paper is in existence. And, naturally, when they elect a man to office, they expect him as far as possible to patronize their home industries, at least to some extent.

The business men of Havana are "dern" little interested in the Milnor printshop, but they are interested in their home poper.

With two good printing offices in his district, the Havana Union and the Cayuga Citizen, it was unnecessary that Mr. Sathe go to Milnor. An expression, sufficiently clear may be expected from our supporters at a future date.

"BAD EYES MAKE BAD MEN" JURISTS OPINION

"Bad eyes make bad men," says Judge William H. Wadhams, who bases his belief upon observations extending over many years.

"The man who cannot see straight cannot think straight and cannot act correctly," continued the jurist, as quoted in Case and Comment.

"When the nervous functions become disarranged the morals also are affected. One of the first steps the state should take in the correction of the criminals is careful examination and treatment of their eyes. A very large percentage of the men who appear before me for sentence are suffering from defective eyesight, and I attribute their moral delinquencies largely to this cause."

The effect of ocular ailments upon delinquency was considered by Dr. William Healy, director of the Psychopathic institute juvenile court, Chicago, who states in his recent work, "The Juvenile Delinquent:"

"In our estimate of causes of delinquency, it appeared that defective vision could be regarded as either a major or minor factor in over 10 per cent of the cases. Vision, to be sure, was not perfect in many other instances, but in these it was hardly to be regarded as any cause of the delinquency. There are several sides to the resultant effects of bad eyesight, so far as delinquency is concerned.

"Eye-strain notoriously leads to irritability, discontent, headache, various feelings of bodily discomfort—all of which may be contributory to the individual's delinquency. Now eye-strain, it should be remembered, is not always to be measured readily by what the individual can see on a test chart.

"Defective vision may exist without strain, and strain may result from not readily discerned defects, such as astigmatism."

FORMER HAVANA MAN PROSPERS IN MONTANA

In speaking of the sale of elevator property to the Treasure State Farmers' Grain and Seed Company the Carbon County Journal, of Red Lodge, Montana, speaks of H. S. Anderson, a former Havana man, as follows:

"H. S. Anderson, who is to be the manager of the elevator here and to have general charge of the four establishments owned by his corporation has been in Red Lodge for several weeks. Mr. Anderson was for two terms president of the Northwestern Grain Dealers' Association and still holds a directorate in that organization. He has cess upon the good will and co-operation of the farmer. 'We are not conducting a philanthropic enterprise, but hope to make a reasonable profit. At the same time we expect to introduce new methods in the elevator business in order to enable us to serve and help the farmer. We shall do a wholesale and retail business in feed, flour, grain and seed.'

"Mr. Anderson says he was first attracted to this territory when passing through it by automobile after a tour of Yellowstone Park. He believes heartily in the future of the agricultural industry in Carbon county and lost not no time in

FORMAN CLIPPINGS

From Indevendent-News.

Allan J Maltby accompanied W. O. Austin, of the Havana country, home last Saturday for a Sunday visit. They went by way of Rutland and inspected the new dredger working on the drainage ditch from the Wild Rice river to Rutland. The ditch is nearly finished, the dredger now being just west of the old Rutland school house.

Elmer Scoville, formerly a Forman boy, enlisted in the U. S. army recently at San Francisco and was assigned to the aviation department. He is now at San Antonio, Texas, undergoing the usual course of training. Those who know Elmer believe that he will make good and it is a pleasure to know that one more of our young men has shown the right kind of patriotism.

Mr. Forest McPhail, of Crete, and Miss Verna Johnson, of Forman, were united in marriage the first of the week at Moorhead, Minn. These are two well known and popular young people of the county—the groom being a son of J. W. McPhail, and the bride a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Johnson. The happy couple have the best wishes of many friends, and the Independent-News unites with them in extending congratulations.

Lars Bungain of Tewaukon was haled into justice court last Thursday on a charge of violating the prohibition law—the warrant of arrest having been issued by State's Attorney Sweetman. Prisoner agreed to plead guilty and was taken to Lisbon to make his plea before the judge of the district court. He was sentenced to a fine of $200 and a jail sentence of 90 days—but the jail sentence was suspended pending good behavior.

Masons Bury Byron Ball, Local Att'y

Funeral services for Byron Ball, former Woodland attorney, who died in San Francisco Thursday, were held this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Richmond Lodge, No. 375, F. & A. M., conducted the rites.

Ball is survived by a wife, Mary E., and was the father of Chester A., Gerald L. and Elba A. Ball. He was 70 years of age, a native of Toronto, Jefferson county, Ohio.

For many years Ball was active in legal, political and fraternal circles in Woodland. He was once a candidate for district attorney, but was defeated by the late E. Hopkins.

Friends in Woodland held Ball in high esteem.

Suffers Fractured Back When Car Turns Over

Mrs. Sarah Bejar was brought here from Colfax last night, suffering with a broken back. She was hurt in an automobile accident when the driver of the car fell asleep and the machine turned over.

Mrs. Bejar was taken to the Woodland Sanitarium. Although the injury was serious, her condition was pronounced as satisfactory today. She will recover.

Taking Big Yield Almonds Off Capay Farm Of Lawheads

Fred Lawhead, who is in charge of the almond orchards of himself and Dr. H. D. Lawhead, north of Capay, reports that the almond growers in that vicinity were particularly fortunate this season. The frost which punched the almond buds in most other communities did not touch them at all. They were protected by the topography of the country.

The Lawhead orchards comprise about fifty acres, set to nine-year-old trees. The harvest will, begin in about a week and the yield will be the largest ever harvested. The trees did not pay until they were seven years old. They came into bearing at the age of six or seven years, but for the first two or three years the yield was hardly sufficient to pay overhead expense. Good prices are anticipated this season and the almond industry will doubtless be very profitable.

Peach Crops Ripen Two Weeks Late

All indications are that this year's peach crop is about ten days to two weeks late. Elbertas and Muirs are for the most part quite green yet, and apparently only beginning to take on their last ripening swell.

The Rural Press is authority for the statement that the peach crop throughout the state will be about two weeks late.

Rail Embargo To Delay Mails; Utah Sacks Now Tied Up

Local mail service thus far has not suffered from the rail embargo. Word of a tie up at Ogden today, however, indicates that Eastern mail from now on will be coming in from a half day to three days late.

Bear Raid Camp Of Laugenours At Yellowstone

Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Laugenour and their sons, Forrest and Beverly, have returned from an automobile trip, the objective point of which was Yellowstone Park. Going into the Park they passed over the Nevada desert where they encountered some heavy roads where the going was hot, dusty and disagreeable. They traveled around the great lake on the north shore and down to Salt Lake City via Ogden. During the remainder of the trip the roads were fairly good. Their route lay through parts of Idaho, Montana and Wyoming.

In the Park they saw everything worth while and had a most delightful experience, except one incident which they were not anticipating and which kept their camp in a turmoil for one night. The Park bears are pretty well domesticated and they are night marauders. One of them, in search of something to eat, raided their camp after they had all retired for the night and they nearly lost their lunch basket. There was but little sleep during the remainder of the night.

Coming out on the return trip the Laugenours took the Yellowstone trail to the Columbia river. They describe this as the most wonderful scenic route they ever had the pleasure of travelling over. Every foot of it is paved and it traverses a picturesque country that is a tourist's paradise. They passed through Spokane and Portland and many other growing and beautiful cities and towns. They are advising their friends that it is one of the most wonderful trips in America.

Top Prices Offered For Figs; Yolo Crop Looks Like Bumper

Seventeen cents for extra fancy lots and 11 cents for ordinary grades, is considered a big price for figs, and Yolo fig farmers are much encouraged. Last year's prices ranged from 4 to 6 cents a pound.

The first local crop has nearly all been harvested and sold. Buyers are now offering around 11 cents for the second crop. Figs will ripen here the forepart of September.

The crop is declared to be a bumper, the quality extra fine.

Chas. Dumars Head Capay Almond Ass'n

L.W. Scarlett Buys Hoppin Ranch

Sale late yesterday of the Charles H. Hoppin ranch, near Yolo, to L. Wilson Scarlett marked the second important real estate transaction here in three days, E. S. Young having purchased one of the Al M. Bemmerly farms last Wednesday. Scarlett took possession of his new ranch immediately.

The Hoppin farm comprises 160 acres. The sale price was around $40,000, according to the revenue stamps on the papers filed by Attorney E. W. Armfield.

The property is two miles west of the Scarlett ranch, which is being farmed by Wilson Scarlett. The latter intends to make his new place his home ranch.

Alfalfa and grain are the chief crops now being raised on the Hoppin ranch.

Hoppin intends to make his permanent home in Oakland. He is engaged in the insurance business.

Taft Makes Hit, Coolidge Fails, Bailey Reports

"We all fell in love with the geniality of Chief Justice Taft but Vice-President Coolidge was not impressive from either personality or ability," declared A. G. Bailey, the only Yolo attorney to attend the American Bar Association meeting in San Francisco. Bailey returned home last night.

Bailey said that Taft made an excellent impression, his address reflecting ability and clear thought. Coolidge read his speech and it failed to hold the interest of the attorneys for that reason.

The Woodland lawyer said that it was current talk among the bigger men from the Eastern states that President Harding would have to "make good" his ultimatum to the railroads and strikers or suffer an appreciable loss in public strength.

Sanitarium Continues To Expand

Dr. Leo P. Bell, first assistant to one of the famous Mayo brothers of Rochester, Minn., has become a member of the group of surgeons and physicians at the Woodland Sanitarium. In the wake of his coming are heard reports that the already spacious and well-appointed Sanitarium is to be further expanded. Patronage has so increased at the local institution that the men in charge find it difficult to accommodate the number of cases. Many out-of-town patients are selecting the Woodland plant in preference to others in the interior.

Dr. Bell will conduct a general practice and do surgery work. He is a graduate of Harvard University. He was at the Mayo Brothers institution at Rochester for three years as first assistant to W. J. Mayo.

Plans for the new addition to the Sanitarium have not been completed but it is indicated that the new wing will be built on the north side. The necessity for additional quarters is evidence of the response and appreciation shown for the excellent service being provided by the management and those interested in the local health plant.

FARMERS ADVISED TO HOLD UP CROPS

Even the brokers are advising wheat and barley farmers not to sell their crops. Both commodities suffered another slump this week. "The market can't go much lower," said one rancher today, and he expressed the sentiment of farmers and brokers alike.

Knights Landing Hunter "Lost"; Pal Fights Fire

A hunting party consisting of William Richter, Norman Scott, William Evans, Raymond Griffith and Guy Shellhammer have returned from the Eel river country. They were successful in bagging two fine bucks, but that was not their most thrilling adventure.

Raymond Griffith got separated from the rest of the party and was lost for nine hours. From the top of a mountain he sighted Eel river, near which their camp was made. He descended to the river bank, thinking it was easy to locate the camp. He actually was only a mile from camp when he reached the river, but he had lost all sense of direction and started south instead of north, as he should have done.

After walking eight miles it dawned upon him that he was going in the wrong direction and he retraced his steps. Fortunately he was provided with a canteen of water. When he arrived in camp he was almost exhausted and the soles of his shoes were worn out.

McGriff was not the only one of the party who had an adventure. A forest fire broke out at the foot of Snow Mountain. E. Crabtree came across Guy Shellhammer and commandeered him to fight fire. As Mr. Crabtree is the forester there there was nothing for Shellhammer to do but obey orders. The local boy fought the fire for 36 hours before it was under control.

Almond Harvest Now In Full Swing; Some Crops Not Yet Ready

Almond harvesting opened in earnest at Esparto and Capay today. Several orchardists were busy the fore part of the week but the main harvest did not start until this morning. In some instances it will be about two weeks before the crops are ready for knocking.

Nonpareils are the first variety to ripen.

Ross Wilson Not Seeking Klan Support

Current political rumors that Ross Wilson, candidate for County Coroner had been handicapped in receiving the endorsement of the Woodland Realm of the Ku Klux Klan, led to an unsolicited statement by Wilson today in which he characterizes any effort "to associate his name by endorsement or otherwise with any faction, fraternity or religious sect" as "unfair, unwarranted, unsolicited."

Wilson's statement is reproduced as follows:

To All Yolo County Voters:

In fairness to my friends and constituency in Yolo County, I seek the columns of the press to put at rest unfair and unfounded rumors to the effect that I am affiliated with or endorsed by sectarian or other organizations or fraternities alleged to exist in this city and county. If I have received any indorsement, it is without my knowledge or solicitation. It is unfortunate that candidates cannot control such situations. We all seek the support and endorsement of our friends in close, clean campaigns such as those now presented to the electorate of Yolo county where we count our friends and supporters among all walks of life and religious and business activity.

My purpose is to assure my friends that I am free of any alliances, cater to no sect, organization or combination of people, and only seek office upon my merit and ability to perform its varied functions.

It has been the good fortune of the undersigned to enjoy the friendship and business confidence of men and women of every church and every avenue of business, and to associate his name by endorsement or otherwise with any faction, fraternity or religious sect, is unfair, unwarranted, unsolicited and does an injustice not merited.

My aim and promise is to meet all requirements of the important office of coroner fairly, efficiently, and justly, following up the policies of the office in past years and while I have been in charge of the work as deputy coroner.

ROSS C. WILSON,
Deputy Coroner, Yolo County.

W. HUGHS DIES SUDDENLY IN OAKLAND

William Hughs, for many years engaged in the stationery and paper business in Woodland, but more recently a department head at The Vogue, passed away unexpectedly in Oakland early today. Death was due to a facial cancer.

Although Mr. Hughs had not been in the best of health for some time, he had not discovered the nature of his affliction until two weeks ago. He left here only yesterday morning to consult specialists. His condition had not been deemed critical.

The funeral arrangements will be completed this evening. Kitto and Wilson received word that the remains would arrive on the 8:20 Southern Pacific train.

Surviving the deceased are a wife and one daughter, Miss Ada, who lives in Woodland, and a son, Harold, who is traveling for a Sacramento concern. He also leaves a brother, Henry, who resides at Gridley, and another brother, Elias, whose home is in Illinois.

Mr. Hughs will be mourned most by those who knew him best. He had a kind heart and his sympathies went out to those to whom it most comforted. He was a modest man and never boasted of his own achievements or attempted to minimize the good deeds of others. He was a good citizen, manifesting a deep interest in every movement, public or private, calculated to promote the interests of the people in the community where he lived.

A devoted husband, affectionate father and loyal friend, he will not soon be forgotten and his memory will long be honored.

Hecke Sent East To Seek Fruit Men's Priority Rights

Hoping to obtain priority rights from the Interstate Commerce Board, G. H. Hecke of this city, State Director of Agriculture, was ordered by Governor Wm. D. Stephens today to proceed at once to Washington, D. C. The object of the trip is to make an effort to get rights of way for the immediate return of refrigerator cars to California.

It is declared that with deciduous fruits and grapes coming on in September and October there will be a shortage of shipping cars in this state unless action is taken now.

As a means of accomplishing the aims of the governor to avert a loss to California farming interests, Hecke today wired the heads of all state departments of agriculture asking them to also proceed to Washington for a conference. Governor Stephens is considering the advisability of sending a similar message to the state governors.

Today's orders to Hecke resulted from a meeting held in San Francisco last Wednesday and which was attended by representatives of 75,000 farmers.

YOLO COUPLE SUSPECTED OF MURDER

Another K. L. Child Meets Sudden Death

"CONVULSIONS FROM HEAT" CAUSED THE DEATH EARLY TODAY OF CALIFORNIA QUINN BRADLEY, INFANT SON OF MR. AND MRS. QUINN BRADLEY OF KNIGHTS LANDING AND A COUSIN OF TWO-YEAR-OLD LOIS FISH, WHO WAS DROWNED IN AN IRRIGATION DITCH ONLY LAST MAY 16. MRS. BRADLEY AND MRS. FISH, MOTHERS OF THE TWO DECEASED LITTLE ONES, ARE SISTERS, BEING THE DAUGHTERS OF THE LATE HENRY HACHMANN, FOR MANY YEARS ENGAGED IN THE TAILORING BUSINESS IN WOODLAND.

The Bradley baby boy passed away at 1 o'clock this morning at the Woodland Sanitarium. Everything possible was done to spare its life. The attending physician said that the cause of death was "convulsions from heat." The child had been ill for about four days.

The Bradleys live a short distance out of Knights Landing. As is the case with the Fish family, they are prominent in the river farming community and the entire vicinity is mourning because of their bereavement.

The baby was one year, 10 months and one day old.

The body will be sent to Santa Rosa Thursday for interment. Kitto and Wilson have charge of the details.

Besides Mrs. Ed Fish, another aunt of the little son is Mrs. Geo. Price, who is likewise well known here.

SCHOOL HOLIDAYS TO END ON HOLIDAY; LABOR DAY NAMED AS OPENER

"Good morning, teacher" and "howdy-do, class" will be heard in all the Woodland public schools on Monday, September 4. The date selected is "Labor Day," a legal holiday, but the red letter day on the calendar means nothing to the freckled faced kiddies and the prim schoolmams unless it's real "labor." High school and all grammar classes will be started on the holiday. School Trustees J. Reith Jr., J. L. Harlan, R. J. Gibson and F. C. Ewert named the date at a meeting last night. J. V. Leithold was absent.

Admission Day, September 9, is a legal school holiday, but Labor Day is not classed as such.

S. A. Sparrow, the Kentfield man, was making 40 miles an hour and paid a $10 fine. Dr. H. C. White of Benicia and Walter Pyle Jr. of Washington were each moving along at a 42-mile gait, according to the officer. C. E. Schoendudy of San Francisco was hitting 'er up at 43 and O. Resident Here Thirty Years Ago Brought Back For Last Resting Place; Old Friends Pay Tribute

The body of the late Charles Henry Mock, mention of whose death was made in Tuesday's "Democrat," arrived on the 11 o'clock train this morning. It was accompanied by the bereaved widow, Mrs. Emma J. Mock, her daughters, Mrs. Mamie Forse, Mrs. Myrtle C. Lenahan, Mrs. Beatrice Smith, and their husbands, and her sister, Mrs. Lydia Noller, all of San Francisco, and Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Muller of Stockton.

The body was taken directly to the city cemetery, where the funeral services were conducted by Father Conner. Many beautiful flowers were laid upon the grave upon the conclusion of the services. The Krellenberg Company had charge of the local arrangements.

Many old-time Woodland friends were at the grave-side to pay a tribute of respect to the dead. The Mocks left Woodland thirty years ago after a long residence in this city. Mr. Mock will be remembered as a painter. He bore the reputation of being an upright and good citizen and many pleasant recollections of his exemplary life were recalled by old citizens of Woodland as they stood beside the open casket and looked upon his kindly and well remembered face.

Mother Of C. Greene Dies Here

Mrs. Bertha L. Greene, widow of the late Charles E. Greene Sr., died at the Woodland sanitarium at 6 o'clock this morning. She was stricken about six months ago and from the beginning of her affliction the physicians in attendance have held out no hope for her recovery.

The maiden name of the deceased was Miss Bertha L. Bennett. She was born in Muscatine, Iowa, March 24, 1839, and was 83 years, 4 months and 15 days old.

She came with her parents, Milo and Mary Bennett, to California in 1851 and located in Sacramento. She was married to Chas. E. Greene Sr., in Sacramento in 1855, and they soon afterward took up their residence in Yolo in the home where she lived ever afterward.

Mr. Greene passed away July 10, 1886. He came to California a pioneer in 1849, lured by the call of the gold fields. After a year in which he was prospecting in mines, he engaged in mercantile business in Sacramento. In 1852 he engaged in farming, the home tract comprising 1280 acres south of Woodland and it was to this highly improved and beautiful home that he took his bride in 1855.

To Mr. and Mrs. Greene were born three children. The eldest, Mrs. B. B. Tuttle died six or seven years ago. The second, Mrs. Ella Jackson, resides in Sacramento. Charles E. Greene Jr., the only son, lives on his farm, which adjoins that owned by his mother. Mrs Greene is also survived by three grandchildren, Lucille, Dorothy and Charles Edwin Greene.

Mrs. Greene was a woman of fine character and strong intellectuality. She was a devoted wife, an affectionate mother and a true and loyal friend, and in all the relations of life discharged her duties and obligations conscientiously and faithfully. She will be sincerely mourned by a wide circle of friends.

The date of the funeral will be announced later. Arrangements are being made through the Krellenberg Co.

Once Local School Girl May Become Leading Actress

In the opinion of Marshall Lee, professional vaudevillian and a brother of County School Superintendent Harriett S. Lee, Miss Pauline Lord, the former Woodland girl, is destined to be one of the greatest actresses in America. "Jack" Lee, as the actor is known over the Keith and Orpheum circuits, declares that Miss Lord's popularity with New York theater-goers is increasing rapidly and he expects to see her in the front rank of the premier actresses of the spoken drama.

Lee, who also formerly made his home in Woodland, has been visiting his sisters, the school superintendent, and Mrs. Helen Clark, but left this morning for Los Angeles.

Lee said last night that the Anna Christy show, of which Miss Lord is the star, is so popular in New York and Chicago that it will likely be some time before it reaches into the Western states. Lee also ventured the opinion that much of the undesirable notoriety given Miss Lord through "eternal triangle" cases has been "framed up." He does not believe that the erstwhile Woodland schoolgirl is the home-wrecker that she has been painted to be.

Miss Lord left Woodland when she was 16 years of age and made her debut with one of Nat Goodwin's companies. Her father, a former local hardware man, was a visitor here recently. He is making his home in New York.

Officers Claim Strong Evidence; Rancher Slain; Dogs Mutilate Remains

BULLETIN.

Although Mrs. Mabel Ross Belarde confessed today that she stood by and watched her pack of dogs chew A. Biese to death, the authorities are inclined to discredit her story. Mrs. Belarde said that she and Beise had quarreled.

An effort is being made to fix the responsibility for the brutal murder of A. Biese, 50-year-old Antelope rancher, upon Mabel Ross Belarde and Louis Belarde, well known to the local county police officers and former residents of Washington, Yolo county. The mutilated body of Biese was found on a cot at his ranch yesterday. The Belardes were neighbors of the farmer.

Under-Sheriff Robert Woods recalled today that the Belarde woman was arrested in Yolo county three years ago upon a petty larceny charge. She was released after paying a fine. Her consort, Steve Dacon, served 20 days for the same offense. Later he was sent to state prison for grand larceny and is now out on parole, say the authorities.

That the Belardes are not husband and wife is the belief of the local officers. They lived near the Yolo causeway section before going to Antelope. Mrs. Belarde is a dog fancier.

Sacramento authorities were inclined to believe last night that the arrest of the Belardes might clear up a murder mystery, but Sheriff J. W. Monroe, Deputy Coroner Ross Wilson and Constable Henry Buckingham, the latter of Washington, said today that they could see no connection with the case recalled by the Sacramento detectives.

A year ago this summer an unidentified man was found in Washington lake. The Sacramento officers say that Mrs. Belarde reported the matter to Constable Buckingham, but the latter said this morning that such was not the case and the Belarde woman had never been suspected of that murder.

After finding the body in Washington lake a haystack upon the ranch on which Belarde was employed took fire and was destroyed under mysterious conditions. Information reaching Sheriff Jones yesterday was to the effect that Belarde was the one suspected of firing the hay.

Neither Belarde nor his wife will give Sheriff Jones any information concerning their past.

Yolo officers were giving what assistance they could in solving the murder of Biese, the Antelope rancher.

Clifford Russell, assistant to Ross Wilson, recalled today that he conducted the inquest. The body was found on August 29, 1921, by Ed Anspack, a boy. Russell remembers talking to a woman about it and he believes that she was Mrs. Ross Belarde. There were no marks of violence on the body. The man was about 25 years old.

The finding of a club, which the officers believe was used to kill the man, a trail of blood leading from the boundary line of the Biese place and that occupied by the Belardes and indications proving that the man had been carried 300 feet to his cot after he had been slain, constitute the strongest evidence.

Officers believe anger over the refusal of Biese to give them food may have caused Belarde and his wife to kill the rancher.

This theory is borne out by the fact that the Belardes have run a bill for food at the Lewis and Lauppe general store in Antelope, and have refused to pay.

The theory that the man was attacked by dogs in his yard and was carried into his house, was discarded when officers found the blood-stained

MURDER SUSPECT IS DESCENDANT OF BETSY ROSS; DOGS HER PALS

Officers claim that Mrs. Mabel Belarde, the Yolo woman held as a suspect in the A. Biese murder case, is a descendant of Betsy Ross, of United States flag fame. She is a sister of Henry Ross, Sacramento attorney.

Living in a hovel reeking with filth, Mrs. Belarde and her companion shared their three rooms with 18 dogs and more than a dozen chickens.

HUNTER FINED BY EMIL KRAFT'S AUNT, JUSTICE OF PEACE

Mrs. McGahan is an aunt of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Kraft of this city.

Editor of the SENTINEL:

I see by the SENTINEL of last week that the farmers of Pleasant Valley have come to the conclusion that the sowing of small grain next spring will be a failure on account of Russian thistles. Now I think this is a wise conclusion, thistles are what wheat should have been anarticle of the past had diversified farming taken place, in my opinion there would not have been so many empty houses in the county to day. Cattle, corn and hogs with creameries and cheese factories will give better satisfaction than all the wheat in the world that we can produce for 30 or 40 cents per bushel. Noticing Mr. H. L. Cooke's corn planter in the SENTINEL I will give my experience and advice of raising corn for the past two years

Dear Mrs. Leach:

This letter is in answer to your request to NYSCOGO for information on genealogy societies in New York State.

Since I do not have a listing of all societies in New York, I'll have to respond to the specific places you mentioned. I'd suggest contacting Fran Roberts from the Northeastern New York State GS about Warren County. Her address is 16 Rudley Drive, Queensbury, NY 12804.

Dennis Eickhoff is from the St. Lawrence Valley GS. His address is P. O. Box 109, Colton, NY 13625-0109.

It may be of help to you to know that the Historian for the Town of Warrensburg is Miss Mabel Tucker, 88 River St. Warrensburg, NY 12885. The Historian for the Town of Lisbon is Mrs. Terry Fischer, Lisbon Town Hall, Lisbon, NY 13658.

I can also tell you that the Historian for St. Lawrence County is Trent Trulock, P. O. Box 8, 3 East Main Street, Canton, NY 13617. The Historian for Warren County is Marjorie Swan, Warren County Municipal Center, Lake George, NY 12845.

I hope this will help you in your quest for your ancestors.

Yours truly,

George R. Krahl

Dear Mrs. Leach:

The only name on your list that appears in the Erie Newspaper Index 1822-1906 is George A. Hopkins. The notice of his marriage appeared in the Erie Gazette, February 14, 1833. I have included a copy. I'm keeping your four dollar check and returning your eleven dollar check since I can't get it to come out even without you writing a third check after I returned the first two. I hope this helps you out in your research.

Sincerely,

Cindy Kerchoff

Worthy Grand Matron Mabel Tellefson

Worthy Grand Patron Reuben Wright

Deputy Grand Matron Ruby Haynes

HISTORY OF MASPHA CHAPTER, O.E.S.

Eastern Star members, living in Brentwood and vicinity gathered together in the early spring of 1902, for the purpose of organizing a chapter of the Order of Eastern Star in this area. Permission had been secured to organize, from Ariel Chapter, No. 42 of Antioch, in whose jurisdiction Brentwood lay.

Mrs. Isabella Buchanan, a member of a Bay area chapter, then a resident of Brentwood, was one of the chief promoters of the new chapter. She was chosen as temporary chairman.

Mrs. Henrietta Stone, who lived at the time, on what is now the Henry Hanson ranch, just north of Davis Court, was unanimously elected Worthy Matron, she, too, being a former member of a bay area chapter.

The Worthy Patron selected to serve the new chapter was William Jereslaw, the founder of Brentwood Lodge, No. , F&AM.

Initiation fees were set at $3.00 per year, affiliation fees, $1.50.

Arrangements were immediately made for the reception and entertainment of the Worthy Grand Matron, Mrs. Clara Giberson, on April 22, 1902, at which time, the new chapter was to be instituted and officers installed.

The name, Maspha, was suggested by the first Worthy Matron, Henrietta Stone.

Two brothers were chosen to definitely secure the Masonic Hall, familiarly known at that time as Coates' Hall, located on Railroad Avenue (now Prelli's Restaurant), as a meeting place. It was duly secured as such, for a rental fee of $2.50 per month, inclusive of lights, janitor service, and use of the banquet room.

The secretary was voted a salary of $1.00 per quarter.

Maspha Chapter was declared duly instituted on April 22, 1902, with Worthy Grand Matron Giberson, presiding and Ariel Chapter exemplifying the work for the benefit of the new chapter. Two sisters were initiated on that evening, and petitions for membership by initiation were also received on that evening.

On September 9, 1902, the chapter held its first outstanding social event, a Grand Ball. It was held on the lower floor of the Masonic Hall.

In June, 1902, a piano was rented for which the Chapter paid $5.00 rental per year.

It may be interesting to note that on June 23, 1902, the receipts of the evening were $2.50, the amount in the treasury was $31.05, and disbursements, $2.10.

Ten minutes recesses were declared at each meeting for the payment of dues.

The first exemplification of work by the officers of the newly formed chapter was held on September 19, 1902 on the occasion of the first official visit of Maspha Chapter of the Worthy Grand Matron, Clara Giberson, who commeded the officers highly on the fine rendition of the ritualistic work. Twenty-three members and three visitors were present.

Sumptuous banquets were held at the close of practically every meeting in the early years of the Chapter.

Meetings continued to be held in the old Masonic Hall for more than twenty years. Because of increased membership and an increase of visitors from neighboring chapters, Maspha had to seek new quarters in January 1924, then recently constructed Masonic Hall became its abode, located on the corner of Second and Oak Streets.

The last installation held in the old hall was that of December, 1923, which was followed by a banquet in the Hotel Brentwood.

During the course of its early existence, Maspha Chapter had several brothers serve as secretaries, approximately 5.

In March of 1918, three brothers were called to the colors to serve in World War I.

Maspha has had the honor of having had seven of its sisters appointed as Deputy Grand Matrons, namely, Henrietta Stone, the first Matron, Bertha Burness, (deceased), Martha Shafer, (1926) Marie Lilliehorn (1933), Hazel Ruetenik (1941), Edna Hi (1947), Shirley Peterson (1954).

"FOR SERVICE NOT FOR SELF"

Go share with a sister or brother thy bread
Forgiving is loving the Angel said.
And must I be giving again and again?
My peevish and piteous answer ran.
Oh no ! said the Angel, piercing me through
Just give 'till the Master stops giving to you.

LE CLAIRE is built along the west side of the Mississippi, on the inner curve of a great bend at which the river swings sharply westward. Here the limestone bluffs close in on the Father of Waters to form that lovely portion of the valley often referred to as "The Narrows." Immediately below the village, the Mississippi starts westward through a broadening valley on its twelve-mile race over the upper of the only two rapids that seriously disturb its calm in a two thousand mile course—from the Twin Cities to the Gulf of Mexico.

Ladies & Gentlemen:

My husband and I would like to join your Society. My husband is a descendant of Rufus Greene and John Leach who lived in the Hopkinton area from the 1830's until they died. Rufus Greene died in the late 1840's, and John Leach died in 1840. John Leach is buried in the Parishville cemetery.

We believe that my husband's great grandfather was a brother of David Leach who lived in Hopkinton. David died in 1903. One of David's daughters married Carlos Colton. Was your town named for a Colton family?

We are enclosing a self-addressed, stamped envelope. Does your Society publish a newsletter, take queries, or do any research for members for a fee, of course?

Sincerely,

Betty Leach

Hello Kindred Seeker Betty

Since we are out here in this forest of family trees together, I thought I might introduce myself. I am Hester Ellen Stockton and I am very interested in any of the species whose names appear at the bottom of this page.

As I watched the youngest of my four offspring lead his lovely bride to their soap-covered, balloon-filled compact car, I brushed away a tear, heaved a sigh of relief, and said to myself, "Now I can do those things I promised myself I would do when the children were grown!"

Fortunately, one of those things was a Keepsake Book for my Mom and Dad, to be presented to them on their 60th Anniversary. It turned out to be one of those projects you start and never want to end.

A lot of water has gone under the bridge since then; Mom has passed away, Dad had a stroke and has recovered, there have been several more marriages, and some new additions including grandchildren. Life is a never-ending story.

I have become an incurable ancestor-seeker. This is one of the most productive uses of time I have ever found. Just as in Music (one of my other loves), Time itself becomes part of the communication mode. Think how fascinating History would've been if teachers had asked, "What did our relatives do in the Revolutionary War, the Civil War, or the Great Depression?"

People are lonely because they build walls instead of bridges. It gives me goose-bumps to cross over the Bridge-Into-The-Past and discover some of my own flesh and blood; or help someone else make that journey.

When I first started this labor of love, I thought all one did was go to the local library, or the closest LDS church and say, "Here I am; where is it?" "It" being your complete Family History clear back to the very first settler who ever set foot in the New World. Ignorance abounds! Did I have a lot to learn! What I did learn was that folks who do genealogy are a special breed. Only one who does this same thing can understand us.

As I am not certain from whence thou comest, I can only assume we are Kith & Kin, and so I will greet you as Cousin until we become better acquainted. If you're interested in research, I would be most grateful to hear what progress you have made on your own family lineage. If you care to share your treasures, I will be glad to pay for any costs to copy your charts, family group sheets, pedigrees, etc.

It is nice to know there are others interested in this unique hobby. The more I discover, the more I want to know! I look forward to hearing from you in the near future.

Sincerely,

Hester

A Concise History of the American Republic . 2nd Edition
Samuel Eliot Morison, Henry Steele Commager, & William E. Leuchtenburg

Missouri but with an amendment prohibiting the further introduction of slaves into Missouri, and requiring that all children subsequently born therein of slave parents should be free at age 25. The bill was put down in the Senate, and a bitter national debate ensued concerned not with the morality of slavery but with sectional power. Northerners regarded the proposed admission of Missouri, which lay almost wholly north of the then dividing line between freedom and slavery, as an aggressive move toward increasing the voting strength of the South; and many threatened secession if slavery were not defeated. Southerners did not yet defend the rightfulness of slavery, but asserted their right to enjoy human property in the trans-Mississippi West, and threatened secession if that were denied. When Congress again took up the question, in January 1820, enough Northern Republicans were detached from the anti-slavery bloc by fear of a Federalist renaissance to get a compromise measure through. Missouri was admitted as a slave-holding state, but slavery was prohibited in United States territory north of lat. 36° 30′. As part of the compromise, Maine, which had detached herself from Massachusetts, was admitted as a free state, making twelve of each.

This Missouri Compromise put the question of slavery extension at rest for almost a generation, but a veil had been lifted for a moment, revealing a bloody prospect ahead. 'This momentous question, like a fire bell in the night, awakened and filled me with terror,' wrote Jefferson. 'I considered it at once as the knell of the Union.' And J. Q. Adams recorded in his diary: 'I take it for granted that the present question is a mere preamble—a title-page to a great, tragic volume.'

Anglo-American Adjustments

While Monroe was coping with the explosive slavery issue he also had to contend with portentous questions in diplomacy that would affect American foreign affairs for generations to come. Almost a century of diplomacy was required to clear up all controversies between Britain and America left by the Treaty of Ghent. J. Q. Adams wrote before the year was out that the treaty was 'a truce rather than a peace' because nothing was settled. 'All the points of collision which had subsisted . . . before the war were left open.' In particular, Canada, with a long and vague boundary, rival peltry and fishing interests, and a fresh-water naval force, promised many points of friction between the two countries.

The three statesmen who did most to preserve peace were Presidents Madison and Monroe, and Lord Castlereagh, the first British statesman since Shelburne to regard friendship with America as a permanent British interest. Madison and Monroe met him halfway, but not John Quincy Adams. He, too, hoped to preserve the peace, but he was suspicious and irascible; as Monroe's Secretary of State his notes needed softening by the now mellow President. But Adams's perception was abnormally keen, and alone of contemporaries in either hemisphere he foresaw his country's future place in the world, and the independence of colonies everywhere.

Disarmament on the Great Lakes was the first fruit of Anglo-American diplomacy after the war, and the most lasting. Peace found each side feverishly building ships against the other on Lake Ontario. The Canadians, apprehensive of further American aggression, looked for large outlays by the British treasury to complete this building program. The Americans, on the contrary, hoped to avoid a fresh-water building contest. In 1815 Congress provided for the sale or laying up of all the Lake fleet not necessary for enforcement of the revenue laws. The army was reduced to 10,000 men, and in 1820 to 6000. But it was President Madison who made the momentous proposal of naval disarmament on the Lakes, and in 1817 an agreement was effected by an exchange of notes at Washington. The Rush-Bagot agreement, named for the American and British ministers, limited naval force on the Lakes, an agreement still in operation, although modified in detail. Not until the 1840's was the boundary line finally settled, but despite periods of severe friction, mutual respect and good will have kept the American-Canadian border undefended and unfortified.

The Treaty of Ghent also provided that the contracting parties 'use their best endeavors' to

History

Indian days. Thousands of Indians lived in what is now Maine before white settlers came. The Indians belonged to the Abenaki and Etchemin tribes of the Algonquian Indian family. The Abenaki lived west of the Penobscot River, and the Etchemin lived east of the river. The Indians had villages, but often moved in search of food. Their enemy, the Iroquois, frequently raided their villages. Maine Indians lived in peace with the earliest white settlers.

Exploration and settlements. Vikings, led by Leif Ericson, probably visited Maine about A.D. 1000. Many historians believe that John Cabot, an Italian sea captain in the service of England, reached Maine in 1498. France sent many explorers to Maine. These explorers and the dates they reached Maine included Giovanni da Verrazano (1524), Pierre du Gua (or du Guast), Sieur de Monts (1604), and Samuel de Champlain (1604). Champlain explored and named Mount Desert, the largest island along Maine's coast.

In 1605, Sir Ferdinando Gorges and Sir John Popham, two wealthy Englishmen, sent George Waymouth to explore the Maine coast. Waymouth's favorable reports about the area led Gorges and Popham to attempt a settlement in Maine. In 1607, they financed a group of colonists who established Popham Plantation, near the mouth of the Kennebec River. The death of Popham that winter and Indian troubles forced settlers to return to England in 1608. While in Maine, the settlers built a boat called the Virginia. It was the first boat built by English colonists in America. The English made many permanent settlements in Maine during the early 1620's. Perhaps the first one was the settlement made near present-day Saco in 1623.

Ownership disputes developed over Maine during the 1600's. In 1622, the Council for New England, an agency of the English government, gave Ferdinando Gorges and John Mason a large tract of land in present-day Maine and New Hampshire. The land was divided between the two men in 1629, and Gorges received the Maine section. Gorges established Maine's first government in 1636. In 1641, he made the community of Gorgeana (now York) a city. It was the first chartered English city in what is now the United States.

After Gorges died in 1647, the people of Kittery, Wells, and York united under a new government. Between 1652 and 1658, they and the people of Casco Bay, Kennebunk, Saco, and Scarborough agreed to make Maine a part of the Massachusetts Bay Colony. In 1660, the heirs of Gorges disputed Massachusetts' ownership of Maine, and claimed Maine for themselves. In 1664, an English board of commissioners ordered Maine restored to the Gorges family. Massachusetts finally gained clear title to Maine in 1677, when it bought the area from the Gorges family.

French and Indian wars were fought in Maine and the rest of New England off and on from 1689 to 1763. The French and their Indian allies battled to gain control of the area from the English colonists. William Pepperrell of Maine led the capture of the French fortress of Louisbourg, Nova Scotia, in 1745. The capture was one of the major events of the conflict. The French and Indian Wars ended with the Treaty of Paris in 1763. The treaty ended all French claims to Maine and most of the rest of North America.

The Revolutionary War. During the 1760's, Great Britain passed a series of laws that caused unrest in Maine and the rest of colonial America. Most of these laws either imposed severe taxes or restricted colonial trade. In 1774, a group of Maine patriots burned a supply of British tea stored at York. This event, called the York Tea Party, resembled the more famous Boston Tea Party of 1773.

The Revolutionary War (1775-1783) started at Lexington and Concord, Mass. Hundreds of Maine patriots joined the fight for independence. The war brought great hardships to Maine towns. In 1775, British troops burned Falmouth (now Portland) to punish the townspeople for opposing the king's policies.

The first naval battle of the Revolutionary War was fought off Machias in June 1775. In the battle, a group of Maine patriots captured the British ship Margaretta. Also in 1775, Benedict Arnold and his troops made a long march from Augusta to Quebec. They tried to capture Quebec from the British, but were pushed back. British troops occupied Castine in 1779. Colonial troops tried to recapture the town, but were badly defeated.

Maine's population increased greatly after the war. Massachusetts rewarded its soldiers with gifts of land in Maine, and sold Maine land to other persons.

In the early 1800's, Maine's economy depended on its pine forests. Wood from the forests was used to build ships and many other products. It was also traded for a variety of goods. The Embargo Act of 1807, which limited U.S. trade with other countries, hurt Maine's thriving shipping industry. But the slowdown in shipping forced Maine to seek new income by developing its manufacturing industries.

Statehood. In 1785, a movement began for the separation of Maine from Massachusetts and for Maine's admission to the Union. Many people in Maine protested heavy taxation, poor roads, the long distance to the capital city of Boston, and other conditions. But before the War of 1812, most voters wanted Maine to remain a part of Massachusetts. The separation movement grew much stronger after the war. Many of those who favored separation won election to the legislature. They swayed many voters to their side. The people voted for separation in 1819, and Maine entered the Union as the 23rd state on March 15, 1820. William King became the first state governor, and Portland was the first capital of Maine. Augusta became the capital in 1832.

Maine's admission to the Union became involved in the Missouri Compromise. The compromise called for Maine to enter the Union as a free state (a state without slaves) and Missouri to enter the Union as a slave state. This arrangement kept the number of slave and free states equal. See Missouri Compromise.

Ever since 1783, the boundary between Maine and New Brunswick had been disputed. The argument led to the so-called Aroostook War of 1839. The U.S. government sent General Winfield Scott to Maine, and he reached a temporary agreement with Canadian officials. No fighting took place. The boundary was finally set by the Webster-Ashburton Treaty of 1842. See Webster-Ashburton Treaty.

In 1846, Maine became the first state to pass a law prohibiting the manufacture and sale of alcoholic beverages. But the law did not provide for effective enforce-

18 Mar. 1664; Simon, 4 Apr. 1666; Josiah, 30 Jan. 1668; Joseph, 2 Feb. 1670, d. young; Benjamin, 15 June 1672, d. soon; and Joseph, again, 24 Jan. 1676. His w. with two of the ch. d. 1678, of smallpox; and the rest of the ch. all d. young. Soon aft. m. he rem. to Boston, join. the first ch. and took freem.'s o. 1671, was rep. 1684 to 6, in the latter yr. being chos. speaker, had large interest in the Narraganset or King's Prov. 1683, and at the first pop. elect. of counsel. in 1693, was chos. one of the ten by the peop. prefer. to ten others, dictat. to k. William in the chart. by Increase Mather, and made one of the judges in Sup. Ct. 1701, from wh. place Gov. Dudley rem. him, and two yrs. later negat. him as counsel. For sec. w. he took, 1680, Eliz. wid. of Peter Lidget, Esq. and she made her will 14 Apr. 1682, prob. hav. such power by her contr. of m. and in July foll. attempt. to destr. hers. as by the diary of Noadiah Russell, in Geneal. Reg. VII. 56, is seen. He had third w. Rebecca, d. of Rev. Samuel Lee of Bristol, whither he rem. a. 1690, and was appoint. the first judge of Pro. in the new Co. then pt. of Mass. since assign. to R. I. From this w. aft. long disagr. he separat. hims. and very curious matter a. the affair may be read in Baylies, IV. 56–61; but far more interest is found in the letter to S. from Cotton Mather, 3 Mass. Hist. Coll. I. 137, writ. only ten days bef. d. of S. prob. therefore never rec. It is one of the happiest of the eccentric writer's productions; and highly piquant would have been the reply of the judge to his ghostly adviser, had he liv. to offer one. The will, made two days bef. pro. two days aft. his d. in wh. nothing is giv. to his w. and £5 to Cotton Mather, confirms this conject. He d. at B. 29 July 1710, and Hutch. II. 136, refers to the interm. of his last surv. s. wh. d. 18 Jan. 1687, immortaliz. by the epitaph in Addison's Spectator, as in the judicious memoir to be read in Geneal. Reg. IV. 109. His wid. m. 26 July 1712, Rev. Joseph Baxter of Medfield.

Safford, John, Ipswich 1665, perhaps br. perhaps s. of Thomas. John jr. took o. of alleg. at Ipswich 1683. Joseph, Newtown, L. I. 1655. Joseph, Ipswich, s. of Thomas, freem. 1682. Thomas, Ipswich 1641, d. 1667, leav. wid. s. Joseph, b. prob. 1633, and three ds.

Sage, David, Middletown, freem. 1667, m. Eliz. Kirby, wh. d. 1670, had David, b. 1 Feb. 1665; John, 5 Mar. 1668; and by w. Mercy, wh. d. 7 Dec. 1711, had Mary, 15 Nov. 1672; Jonathan; and Timothy, 14 Aug. 1678; all nam. exc. Mary, with his w. in the will short. bef. he d. 31 Mar. 1703; beside ds. Eliz. 6 June 1666, wh. m. a Bull; Mary, w. of Samuel Johnson; and Mercy, without surname, so may be presum. unm. Good est. he left to wid. Mary, and these seven ch. Descend. are num.

Sale, Seale, or Saile, Edward, Salem, was prob. that passeng. 1635, aged 24, in the Elizabeth and Ann from London, freem. 2 Nov. 1637, but he must have belong. to ano. ch. than S. In June preced. his w. Margaret was charg. for adultery with more than one, and banish. next yr. See Col. Rec. I. 198, and Winth. II. 349. He was of Rehoboth 1644. ‖ Ephraim, Boston, s. of Edward, ar. co. 1674, was its lieut. and d. 2 Dec. 1690. By w. Alice he had Samuel, b. 11 Feb. 1678; Nathaniel, 21 Oct. 1679; and by w. Mary, d. of Hopestill Foster, had Mary, 21 Aug. 1681; Hepzibah, 24 Dec. 1684; John, 17 Jan. 1687; and Thankful, 18 May 1689. His wid. m. 10 Dec. 1691, Samuel Ward. Obadiah, Boston, freem. 1681, by w. Sarah had John, b. 23 July 1680; Abigail, 6 Aug. 1681; Sarah, 3 Mar. 1683; and Sarah, again, 27 Aug. 1684.

Salisbury, John, Swanzey, perhaps s. of William, k. by the Ind. 24 June 1675, perhaps the first victim of the gr. war. John, Boston, prob. s. of Nicholas, perhaps b. in Eng. by w. Annabel had John, b. 5 Jan. 1690; Nicholas and James, tw. 20 Aug. 1694, both prob. d. with the mo. soon; and by w. Bridget had Nicholas, again, 28 Oct. 1697; Benjamin, 7 Nov. 1699; was a mariner, and, perhaps, d. abroad. His inv. was tak. 5 June 1708, and the wid. appoint. adminx. 6 July, and brot. in the docum. 4 Oct. foll. by the name of Bridget Gooding, late Salisbury. Nicholas, Boston, had w. Eliz. wh. d. 17 Feb. 1688, aged 53, perhaps was f. of John, and the com. ancest. of sev. disting. fams. William, Swanzey 1671, was, perhaps, f. of John bef. ment. certain. of that William, prob. k. by the Ind. 24 June 1675 in Philip's war, the first blast of wh. utter. scatter. this town. Admin. on his est. was giv. to his wid. 17 Sept. of that yr. and 11 Nov. 1684 the f. took admin. de bonis non. But he was of Milton, had w. Susanna; and from Hist. of Dorchester, 59, I learn that he had been there bef. 1656.

Sallows, Benjamin, Salem 1637. Felt. John, Salem 1668, s. prob. of Michael, was a petitnr. against imposts. Michael, Salem 1635, in his will of 14 Nov. 1646, pro. 31 Dec. foll. names Michael, his youngest s. d. Martha, beside s. Thomas, Robert, John, and Samuel, with s.-in-law Edward Wilson, made Wilson and s. Robert excors. both of wh. declin. to serve. Robert, Salem, s. of the preced. d. 1663, prob. in June, as his inv. was brot. in 1 July. Thomas, br. of the preced. wh. d. 1663, perhaps at the same time with his br. it may be by shipwreck, or in a distant ld. at least the Ct. of Pro. rec. his inv. two days aft. that of Robert, and from differ. apprais. He was f. perhaps, of the ch. Hannah, Mary, Sarah, and Robert, all bapt. 5 June 1664.

Salls, Samuel, Lynn, m. 4 Aug. 1663, Ann Lenthall. Perhaps the name should be Sallows, and he s. of Michael.
